

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1897.

ONE CENT.

SPRING CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising space for less than a certain value. A newspaper is a commodity, and a commodity has a value. A newspaper is a commodity, and a commodity has a value. A newspaper is a commodity, and a commodity has a value.

By Electric Light!

Friday noon Mr. Gibson handed us the following telegram: Cincinnati, Oct. 15th, 1897. Hechinger & Co., Maysville, Ky.—Make cash offer on what we have left of such styles as you bought early this season.

At the request of the house, one of the largest in Cincinnati, we omit the name. Mr. Gibson has original telegram. We wired back "Our Mr. D. Hechinger will come down on the 3:35 train." He came, saw and conquered. We discovered that the house that owned the goods was anxious to realize on them. By electric light, inside of 90 minutes, we made the purchase of our business career. The goods are now in transit, and will be on our counters Wednesday morning.

They Were Bought for Cash!

They Will Be Sold for CASH!

The prices will be a revelation to bargain seekers. See window display Wednesday morning. We will tell you more about them.

Have you seen the late arrivals in our shoe window? None like them in Northeastern Kentucky. If you are fond of a good-fitting shoe, and with it perfect comfort, come in and try on a pair.

HERE AND THERE

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Miss Mary Gibson is visiting friends at Chillicothe, O.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Scott returned Saturday from St. Louis.

Mr. Orlando P. Cox was in Flemingsburg yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Milton S. McLean of Germantown was in the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bateman of West Line, Mo., have returned to this city to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Heiser leave today to visit friends in Louisville and Nashville.

Mr. Garrett S. Wall and daughter Miss Hechinger left this morning for a visit in Cincinnati.

Mr. R. P. Jenkins of the State National Bank was Saturday registered at the Elbert, Washington City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Foster Harbour have returned from a trip to Denver, Pike's Peak and other Western points.

Mr. Charles B. Pearce, Cashier of the State National Bank, has returned from a Western tour, much improved in health.

Mr. L. W. Galbraith has returned after a three weeks visit to Galbraith Springs, Tenn. She also attended the Tennessee Centennial.

Governor Bradley has refused to pardon ex-Bank Cashier Ship of Midway.

A gun club has been organized at Maysville and a clay pigeon shoot will be given Saturday.

Colonel and Mrs. S. N. Meyer will take up their residence for the winter in the house of Mr. D. Fitzgerald, Fountain Place above the Jail.

Murphy the Jeweler carries the largest stock of Diamonds and Gold Watches to be found in the city. His prices are the lowest. If you want first-class goods call on him.

Hon. John W. Yerkes will not speak at Maysville on the 26th as has been announced. State Chairman Hampton informs THE LEDGER that the date has been cancelled by request.

The marriage of Mr. William Clarence Lydick of Cynthiana and Miss Elizabeth T. daughter of Mr. A. P. Gooding, will take place at the Maysville Christian Church Wednesday evening, October 26th.

"Eagle" Dumlal, one of the Newport gentlemen charged with the assault on Mrs. Thomas Gleason, has been arrested by the police of that city and will have a hearing before the Grand Jury which meets November 8th.

Joseph Shelley of Vanceburg gets a brand new pension.

The present cotton crop has been estimated at 10,800,000 bales.

Mr. G. W. Caywood of Quincy last week lost two children from croup.

J. M. Baldwin, one of Bracken county's oldest citizens, died of paralysis at the age of 75.

Joshua Simons, a Minister of the Christian Church, has been licensed to perform the marriage rites.

Colonel H. R. Malby is home from New York state, where he had been called by the death of a brother.

Miss Agnes Dodson, who has charge of the music department at the college at Wrightsville, Ga., is ill with fever.

Mr. C. Porter Beckett, who has been confined to his room several weeks with rheumatism, is able to be out again.

Mrs. George Schwartz, of this city, was elected Grand Treasurer of the Rebekah State Assembly which met at Owensboro last week.

The Foreign Christian Missionary Society, with headquarters in Cincinnati, an organization of the Christian Churches or Disciples of Christ, has succeeded in raising $100,000 for foreign missions this year.

WILLIS WON BOTH.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals Says a Man Can Hold Two Positions.

L. C. Willis was elected City Attorney at Shelbyville.

His defeated opponent, in the name of the Commonwealth, brought suit against him for usurpation of office, on the grounds that he was a Director in and Attorney for the Electric Light and Water Companies, and therefore ineligible.

The Court of Appeals, after a vigorous wrestle with the case, handed down a decision in favor of Mr. Willis on both counts.

So a man can be City Attorney and Electric Light and Water Company Attorney at the same time.

SERVED AT LAST.

Judge Bullock of Lexington Will Have a Police Court Hearing Today.

The two warrants sworn out by Elijah P. Harrison of The Leader office against County Judge F. A. Bullock of Lexington, charging him with assault with a pistol and carrying a concealed weapon, were executed Saturday by Sheriff E. T. Gross and made returnable in the Police Court.

Judge Bullock appeared before Squire W. F. Downing, who fixed his bail at $500 in the assault case and $300 in the concealed weapon case.

The ball was readily furnished, with Police Commissioner Ernest Ellis as his bondsman.

The cases will probably be heard in the Police Court today.

Judge Bullock has been confined to his home with illness for a week, and had not been in his office until Saturday morning since the warrants were issued one week ago.

CONDITION CRITICAL.

Mrs. A. L. Scudder and Daughter Mary Still in a Critical Condition.

The many relatives and friends of the family in this city will regret to learn of the critical condition of Mrs. Arch L. Scudder and daughter Mary, injured in the Robinson Opera-house catastrophe at Cincinnati.

The latest information is that Mrs. Scudder is still unconscious, and does not recognize her husband, who is constantly at her side.

She is still in a dangerous condition, and her recovery is thought doubtful.

Her daughter Mary has regained consciousness, however, and may survive. She cannot talk, however, her jaw being broken in two or three places. She will probably carry through life the result of the injuries.

THE LEDGER, in common with a host of friends in this city, tenders heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Scudder, and offers a fervent prayer that his dear one may soon recover.

MRS. SCUDDER DEAD.

The End Came at 12:30 This Morning—Funeral Arrangements.

A telegram came this morning from Mr. Scudder conveying the sad news that Mrs. Scudder died at 12:30.

Deceased was 50 years of age, and a native of Fleming county.

Her maiden name was Maggie Darnall. She was a noble Christian woman, a devoted wife and a loving mother.

The news of her untimely death has cast a shadow over this community, where she was so well known and so greatly esteemed.

May He who tempers the wind extend His mercies to the prostrate daughter and the heartbroken husband.

The remains will be brought to this city at 7:30 this evening and taken to the residence of her cousin, Mr. C. W. Darnall, 314 Market street, and tomorrow morning they will be taken to Elizaville for interment.

The Court of Appeals reversed the suit of Wiggins vs. Commonwealth taken up from Robertson county.

The Foreign Christian Missionary Society, with headquarters in Cincinnati, an organization of the Christian Churches or Disciples of Christ, has succeeded in raising $100,000 for foreign missions this year.
